

POTTSTOWN CITIZENS FOR Enlightened LEADERSHIP

Take a seat at the Pottstown library

Visit the Pottstown Regional Public Library 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. this Saturday for a used book sale and to view antique wooden chairs decorated by local artists.

The chairs, which will be sold to the highest bidder, will be displayed in front of the library building (weather permitting).

Each of the 20 chairs is painted

Commentary by Thomas Hylton

with a different book theme by volunteer artists, ranging from professionals to students from the Hill School and the Pottsgrove School District.

You can submit a bid on the spot, or you can attend the in-person auction at The Carousel At Pottstown from noon to 3 p.m. Saturday, May 22.

Live bidding will begin at 1 p.m. by George Wausnock.

PICTURED ARE 9 of the 20 chairs